ANOTHER evidence of the growth of the protective sentiment in the South is found in the presence at Washington this week of a delegation from several of the Southern States urging that the protective clause of the Dingley Bill on rice be maintained, and the lower rates named by the amendment of the Senat Committee rejected.

"Borrowing from the future" is what The Fiorida Times-Union, a Democrati paper, truthfully calls the recent develorment of the enormous importations of foreign goods. With a hundred million dollars' worth of foreign goods coming in during a single month, as was the case in April, it is easy to see that the country will be so filled with imports by the time the new Dingley Law goes into effect that its Tariff earnings for the first few months must be light, and that the country is, as this Democratic paper acenrately puts it, "borrowing from the future," by this process

The people of the county of Knox, state of Tennessee, of which Knox ville is the county seat, have pledged a subsidy of $500,000 for the Black Dia mond outlet from Knoxville, Tenn., to the oblio river, and a like sum of $500,000 for the Black Diamond outlet to the sea.

Anyone familiar with railroad construction will tell you that such Anyone famular with rainroad construction with tell you that such subsidy, backed by a free right of way, insures the early building of every lin of the Black Diamond System of Railways that can be got ready for construc-tion, backed by a free right of way.

I would be gratified to see a strong delegation from your place and county. It will be the grandest railroad demonstration ever made, because it is a movement of the people to cut the Gordian knot of high freight rates as well as to rapidly advance the upbuilding of the cities, towns and villages as well as to rapidly advance the uponulusing of the cittes, fowns and villages along the lines traversed by the Black Diamond, by concentrating all energies toward local traffic instead of through service. The latter does not help sus tutin or profit any community. Every through passenger trains spas the life of your section in the interest of the large cities that have no interest in commor with its welfare. The policy of the Black Diamond will be just the opposite of other trunk lines, it will work its railways solely in the interest of the peo
